

The Way We Go Your Roadmap To A Better Future

Pat Heydlauff, a pioneer of limitless boundaries can help you reach your unlimited potential. With her insightful knowledge and calming presence she inspires and assists you in your daily challenges, then gently guides you through stressful issues and life transitions. She draws her knowledge and wisdom from life experiences and personal issues. She experienced and overcame many challenges such as job elimination, illnesses, loss of sight in one eye and caretaking.

Pat was overworked, fatigued and stressed out, while holding a long-term position as a CEO of a large nonprofit organization when she embarked upon her personal journey to create inner peace and harmony in her life. She was divinely guided to balance her world through her artistic expression, painting. This put her in a state of prayer and meditation which lead her to create the art book The Way We Go Your Roadmap to a Better Future.

Through her business "Energy Design" she offers workshops, seminars and consulting services to corporations, organizations, individuals, entrepreneurs and groups who are seeking a roadmap to success and a better future. She is certified in neuro linguistic programming, time line therapy, organization management and uses the Disney Approach to Creative Leadership. Using the principles of feng shui, she specializes in a "Flow of Focus" strategy for home and

*The Way We Go
Your Roadmap to a Better Future*

PAT HEYDLAUFF

business along with other transformational empowerment tools including "Free Flow Painting." Her work has been featured in newspapers, magazines and art galleries.

She is also the author of both Feng Shui, So Easy a Child Can Do It and Selling Your Home With a Competitive Edge.
The Way We Go Content Statement

Pat Heydlauff inspires, encourages and empowers you to create a better life now and find peace within through her creative artwork, colors and words. Her book is a roadmap for your journey so you can leave behind chaos and despair while discovering peace, joy and a lasting eternal connection. It is the journey and finding your true happiness that really matters, not how fast you travel or how often you falter.

Her inspiration invites you to discover peace within, and experience the joy only a divine connection brings. If you wish to remove chaos, fear and despair from your life replacing them with hope peace and joy, read the verses and allow the energy of the colors, shapes and designs in the artwork guide you to your own place of peace and calm. Now is your moment.

Advertise, Send Articles.
Check Out Our Website!
www.seabreezepublications.com